WHAT WE'RE LOVING THIS MONTH!

I Wonder by K.A. Holt

"I wonder if cars and trucks speak the same language as me?"

"I wonder if boy ladybugs are boybugs."

"How does a clock know what time it is?"

"I wonder if teddy bears ever cry."

UNSEEN DOCUMENTARY

SEPTEMBER RELEASE

Mark Your Calendar

UNSEEN Documentary Sheds Light on the Life of Parent Caregivers

New documentary Unseen explores the everyday challenges faced by parent caregivers for kids with complex medical needs. From the moment a parent is first told their child has a disability until the day they are no longer able to care for them, parent caregivers endure a lifetime of unrelenting care and worry. Join BEST as we screen Unseen followed by a Q&A with the filmmakers.

When: September 25th

Where: Online via Zoom

Tickets: Free for Friends of BEST; General Admission is $10.00. Use Code BESTN_25 to receive 25% off with the code.

BEST TOGETHER

SEPTEMBER 28

Training On September 28th

Interested in Becoming a Teacher of the Visually Impaired (TVI)?

Join us for an intro to TVI training as we cover an overview of the role of the TVI and the assessment, instruction, and implementation process.

When: September 28th

Where: Online via Zoom

Register at the links below.

UNSEEN DOCUMENTARY

Use the code BESTN_25 for 25% off tickets.

PARENT CONNECT

SEPTEMBER 28

Unfiltered glimpses into the daily lives of a family.

Join us for a viewing of the documentary Unseen followed by a Q&A with the Ronne family.

When: September 28th

Where: Online via Zoom

Register at the links below.

NEW DOCUMENTARY SHEDS LIGHT ON THE LIFE OF PARENT CAREGIVERS

Unseen is a new documentary by filmmakers, Tom and Amanda Dyer, both of Nashville. The film tells the story of the Dyer family, a family’s mental, physical and emotional well-being. Highlighted in the film is the toll that full-time parent caregiving takes on a family’s mental, physical and emotional well-being. The电缆 family shares the challenges, joys, and rewards of being parents to a child with complex medical needs.

WHEN: SEPTEMBER 25

WHERE: ONLINE VIA ZOOM

Rinne family: Tom & Amanda Dyer, both of Nashville.

Unseen is a new documentary about the电缆 family’s journey from isolation and uncertainty to a world of loving connections.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A TEACHER OF THE VISUALLY IMPAIRED (TVI)?

Vanderbilt University’s Special Education: Visual Disabilities Program is actively seeking applicants for future cohorts and wants to answer any questions that you may have.

When: September 28th

Where: Online via Zoom

Register at the links below.

BEST NEWS

Vol. 2, Issue 9

BESTCRAFT CORNER

Sensory Exploration

New children’s book, The Tugl Cube by Fat Paws, is a perfect addition to any child’s playtime.

WHAT WE'RE LOVING THIS MONTH!

I Wonder by K.A. Holt

"I wonder if cars and trucks speak the same language as me?"

"I wonder if boy ladybugs are boybugs."

"How does a clock know what time it is?"

"I wonder if teddy bears ever cry."

UNSEEN DOCUMENTARY

SEPTEMBER RELEASE

Mark Your Calendar

UNSEEN Documentary Sheds Light on the Life of Parent Caregivers

New documentary Unseen explores the everyday challenges faced by parent caregivers for kids with complex medical needs. From the moment a parent is first told their child has a disability until the day they are no longer able to care for them, parent caregivers endure a lifetime of unrelenting care and worry. Join BEST as we screen Unseen followed by a Q&A with the filmmakers.

When: September 25th

Where: Online via Zoom

Tickets: Free for Friends of BEST; General Admission is $10.00. Use Code BESTN_25 to receive 25% off with the code.

BEST TOGETHER

SEPTEMBER 28

Training On September 28th

Interested in Becoming a Teacher of the Visually Impaired (TVI)?

Join us for an intro to TVI training as we cover an overview of the role of the TVI and the assessment, instruction, and implementation process.

When: September 28th

Where: Online via Zoom

Register at the links below.

UNSEEN DOCUMENTARY

Use the code BESTN_25 for 25% off tickets.

PARENT CONNECT

SEPTEMBER 28

Unfiltered glimpses into the daily lives of a family.

Join us for a viewing of the documentary Unseen followed by a Q&A with the Ronne family.

When: September 28th

Where: Online via Zoom

Register at the links below.

NEW DOCUMENTARY SHEDS LIGHT ON THE LIFE OF PARENT CAREGIVERS

Unseen is a new documentary by filmmakers, Tom and Amanda Dyer, both of Nashville. The film tells the story of the Dyer family, a family’s mental, physical and emotional well-being. Highlighted in the film is the toll that full-time parent caregiving takes on a family’s mental, physical and emotional well-being. The电缆 family shares the challenges, joys, and rewards of being parents to a child with complex medical needs.

WHEN: SEPTEMBER 25

WHERE: ONLINE VIA ZOOM

Rinne family: Tom & Amanda Dyer, both of Nashville.

Unseen is a new documentary about the电缆 family’s journey from isolation and uncertainty to a world of loving connections.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A TEACHER OF THE VISUALLY IMPAIRED (TVI)?

Vanderbilt University’s Special Education: Visual Disabilities Program is actively seeking applicants for future cohorts and wants to answer any questions that you may have.

When: September 28th

Where: Online via Zoom

Register at the links below.

BEST NEWS

Vol. 2, Issue 9

BESTCRAFT CORNER

Sensory Exploration

New children’s book, The Tugl Cube by Fat Paws, is a perfect addition to any child’s playtime.